OUIET WEDDING

Events of the Week in Wichita Society Circles.

One of the most beautiful home weddings celebrated in Wichita for many a day took place at the pleasant home of Mr. and Mrs. Weiser, 46 North Lawrence avenue, on Wednesday evening, October 2, at 8 o'clock. The fortunate groom was Mr. William T. Terrill, a bright young lawyer of Chicago, and the bride our own Miss Mayme Thomson, daughter of Mr. A. S. Thomson, of 453 North Lawrence. Miss Thomson has endeared herself to the people of this city, not only by her noble character and lady-like ways. but has reached the hearts of many by her exercise of the art divine-music Many times has she charmed Wichita audiences with her music, given freely. On account of the serious illness of little baby Dorothy Anderson, a niece of the bride, and who, with her mother, is stopping at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. Weiser threw open their beautiful home for the accommodation of Promptly at 8 o'clock the beautiful measured strains of Lohengren went floating through the halls, and with stately step the bridal party appeared. First came two charming young ladies, Miss Claudia McCoy and Goldie Evans, elegantly gowned, strewing the way with rose leaves. Following these came the groom, leaning on the arm of the best ntan, Mr. Fred R. Thomson, a brother of the bride. These were both in evening dress. Then came the matron of honor, Mrs. Orio Thomson Johnston, a cousin of the bride. Mrs. Johnston wore an elegant creation of white crepe de chine Then came the beautiful little fairy-like Rachel Anderson, bearing the ring in a great American Beauty rose. Following her came the bride, borne on the arm of her father. The gown of the bride was beautiful, very simple, and yet a perfect The material was white valls over turquoise silk, made with train. The wrvice used was the Episcopal form, and using the ring. Rev. James A. Lawrence, of the United Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony, and all felt the ecasion a solemn one, although full of

During the service Miss Mary Findley, who presided at the plane, played softly the beautiful song, "Oh, Promise Me." Then to close the ceremony the bride and groom stepped forward and kneeled on a pillew under a canopy of smilax and autumn leaves, trimmed with cosmos, when they were pronounced man and wife three ladies will assist, and received the blessing.
